

'24 - The Hour Has Come: Execution

Chris Moghtaderi | 10.11.2026

John 19:17-30

Exodus 12 | Numbers 21:4-9 | Psalm 22 | Isaiah 53 | Hebrews 9:11-14

---

Big Idea:

Jesus doesn't go to the cross as a victim of defeat, but as the King who finishes the work of love.

Point 1: See

Can you see that Jesus is still _____, even when He is lifted up to _____?

Point 2: Trust

Can you trust the _____ of Jesus that stays present, even in _____?

Point 3: Rest

Can you reset in the _____ work of Jesus instead of trying to _____ to it?

Because Jesus finished the work, we can live _____ victory, not _____ victory.

Challenge: Stop adding to what Jesus already finished.

Talk It Over: '24 - The Hour Has Come: Execution'

Discuss these questions with someone – maybe a family member, friend, or member of your LifeGroup. Use a communication method that works best for your situation.

To Start Things Off:

Share about a time when finishing something difficult brought relief, joy, or a sense of freedom. What made that moment meaningful?

 Dig Deeper

Read John 19:17-27

- What stands out to you about the way John describes Jesus going to the cross?
- Why is it significant that Jesus is still caring for others, even while He is suffering?
- What does this scene show us about the kind of King Jesus is?

Read John 19:28-30

- Jesus says, "It is finished." Why is that different from saying, "I am finished"?
- What does this tell us about Jesus' mission and His obedience to the Father?
- How does the finished work of Jesus challenge the idea that we have to earn God's love or prove ourselves worthy?

Read Isaiah 53:3-6 and Hebrews 9:11-14

- How does Isaiah help us understand what is happening at the cross?
- What does Hebrews teach us about Jesus' sacrifice being complete and enough?
- Why is it good news that Jesus does not merely start our salvation, but finishes what we could never finish?

 Personal Reflection

- Where are you still trying to earn, prove, fix, or carry something that Jesus has already finished?

October Memory Verse: "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9
